

Frank Mason

in Vermont:
Artist and Teacher

Summer 2017
At the Bryan Gallery

The Bryan Memorial Gallery presents

S U M M E R 2 0 1 7

JUNE 29 - SEPTEMBER 4, 2017

Reception Sunday, July 2

Artists Roundtable at 1 pm • Reception 2 – 4 pm

Frank Mason in Vermont

Artist and Teacher

in the Main Gallery

For 40 years, renowned painting instructor Frank Mason (1921 - 2009) brought a group of students to Vermont to paint "the light effect." The Bryan Gallery presents Frank Mason's Vermont paintings, alongside works by fifty of his students.

Dianne Panarelli Miller and Her Students

in the Middle Room

Dianne Panarelli Miller is an award-winning artist who paints in the Boston Tradition of Realism.

2017 Legacy Collection

in the East Gallery

The 2017 Legacy Collection includes 120 works by gallery artists, spanning many mediums and styles.

Sponsors:

UnionBank
Member FDIC Equal Housing Lender

Open in Summer: Daily, 11 – 5
Always open by appointment.

On front: "Forest Retreat," oil by Frank Mason.

Above left: "Glenn Ellis Falls," oil by Dianne Panarelli Miller.

Above right, top to bottom: "Vermont Shower," detail, oil by Tim Brewer; "Corner of the Barn," detail, oil by Keith Gunderson; "Sorrel's Knoll," detail, oil by Thomas Torak; "Tunbridge Fair," detail, oil by Michael Moore.